

This is the main menu that shows all of the classes for the day, their times, and locations

This is the add a class screen and in this screen the user puts in all the data that is required for the main menu